

Le Champ Du Four

Southern Burgundy, France

A renovated stone farmhouse for holiday rental in the heart of France

Le Champ Du Four is bright and spacious, surrounded by peaceful, scenic farmland. It's only 500m from the farming village of Trivy and 600m from the restaurants and lake at the commune of Chandon.

The village of Dompierre les Ormes, 3 km to the south, has all the shops for day-to-day needs including bakeries, butchers, a grocery store, wine merchant, restaurants, hairdressers and a weekly market, There is a municipal swimming pool for the warmer months.

Food and wine are a feature here, surrounded by the Maconnais wine region, in the midst of the Charolais cattle district with provincial cheeses from local markets and Beaujolais villages just to the south.

Le Champ Du Four sleeps six people.

The former farmhouse has been updated with a well equipped kitchen at one end of the large ground floor room with terracotta tiled floor and cathedral ceiling. A comfortable family room with bookshelves and a TV at the other end is separated by a large dining area with a refectory table.

French doors open to the spacious courtyard area which is shaded by a large horse chestnut tree.

There are two double bedrooms, a twin bedroom and a fold-out sofa bed in the separate lounge room. In addition to the updated bathroom, there is a second toilet adjacent to the laundry, which also has a washing machine and dryer.

All linen is supplied

Two efficient wood heaters provide warmth and atmosphere in the cooler months, with portable heaters in each bedroom.

Le Champ Du Four is centrally located to a wide range of attractions.

Less than 30 minutes from:

- Cluny and its famous Abbey
- Mâcon, medieval city on the Saone
- Mâconnais wineries "Route des Vins"
- Charolles with the Duke's fortress
- Paray-le-Monial, pilgrimage town
- Beaujolais and its wine villages
- Chambertin, a 13C furnished château
- Walking paths and bike trails created along canals and old rail lines

Within an hour:

- Lyon, second largest city and the culinary centre of France
- Beaune, beautiful historic city
- Grenoble, gateway to the Alps

Within two hours:

- Geneva, Switzerland for fondue, chocolate and Lake Léman
- Dijon, capital of Burgundy, with its famous mustards and Cote D'Or wines

Or grab a good book, a glass of wine and take the one minute journey to the lounge chairs on the shaded lawn.

Reservations

For bookings and enquiries, or to obtain details of the farmhouse and the region, please contact Bruce and Judy Kirkham on:

(+61) 03 9545 0505

or

(+61) 0404 943 132

or send an email with requested dates to info@a-farmhouse-in-france.com

Look at our website:

www.a-farmhouse-in-france.com

Getting There

Le Champ Du Four is easily accessible by planes, trains and automobiles:

- By plane, with international airports at Lyon (1 hr), Geneva (2 hr) and Paris.
- By TGV fast train two hours from Paris to Mâcon (25 mins).
- By car, via the A6 motorway from Paris or Lyon, or A7 from Marseille or Nice.

